OAKVILLE, Ont. - Anyone can offer you sweet, sensual chocolate to eat ; especially so close to Valentine's Day, however Nuit De Chocolat guests are being offered an opportunity to 'wear' chocolate !

"It's not your traditional Valentine's Day celebration. Our guests are being treated to chocolate in ways they may not have experienced before", according to Jim Kerstens, General Manager, Holiday Inn-Oakville Centre @ Trafalgar. He is referring to Xocai: Best Chocolate 4 Your Health www.bestchocolate4yourhealth.com which you can consume and a few varieties you can wear in the form of chocolate-based bath oil and exfoliates. 'It's all about the experience, so we'll have an esthetician at the event to massage your hand with the chocolate exfoliant. You really have to try it.', said Mr. Kerstens.

GRAND PREMIERE OF ADULTS-ONLY CUPCAKE

Event guests will also be treated to the introduction of the 'Inn-the-Mood Cupcake'. According to Holiday Inn-Oakville Centre Head Chef Jamie Vanderwilp, "It's for adults-only because once you taste it, you won't want to share it with the kids !" Seriously speaking, its been all hands on deck to ensure 'Nuit De Chocolat' is an unprecedented success. In addition to experiencing sweet and savour delights, you will also be helping a very worthwhile cause, Big Brothers Big Sisters of Halton (BBBSH). Net proceeds from the event will be donated to BBBSH and Executive Director Jules Graham-Hood, is thrilled. " We are ecstatic that Jim Kerstens has selected us to be their charity of choice for this event. Most people don't realize that we rarely receive government funding and rely on grants and donations."
